Undergraduate Studies

2D AUCTION SPECTACULAR SUCCESS!!! This year's Painting and Printmaking auction grossed $42,735 in total sales. 50% of the proceeds will go to the contributing artists. After expenses, approximately, $17,000 will be used for scholarships and special programs.

Highly publicized in the media, the auction drew coverage with the Boston Globe, the Boston Herald, and WBZ, who sent Liz Walker to auction off a drawing by Governor Dukakis. Main auctioneer, Dean Nimmer, was assisted by guest auctioneers, Henry Hampton and David Ross. Much credit for this outstanding event must go to Henry Isaacs, Heddi Siebel, Margi Simpson, and Suzi Kirwin of the organizing committee.

JOIN THE MASS ART ICE HOCKEY TEAM NEXT FALL - All interested players, please contact Elizabeth Rabbette, Director of Housing and Student Activities, (T633), or call x369.

AEROBICS - CHEAP ! Anyone (Faculty, Staff, Students) interested in taking aerobics over the summer, twice a week, at noon, for a small fee (sliding scale), please call Debbie, x373, as soon as possible. The instructor is very good! If we can get 10-15 people committed to this, it would run $4-$6 per week.

SUMMER WORKSTUDY JOBS - Students interested in Summer Wordstudy should sign up in the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible.

ARE YOU FEELING STRESSED? On Wednesday, May 6, a well-attended stress management workshop was held on campus. Our guest speaker was Dana Myers, a health educator affiliated with Tufts Associated Health Plan. For those who were unable to attend, here are some helpful tips on the subject:

1. Eat and sleep regularly and responsibly. Food and sleep fuel our bodies. If we're working especially hard, it makes sense that we'll need more fuel to keep going efficiently.
2. Allow yourself to let off steam by telling someone how you're feeling. Sometimes that person can make some suggestions or provide positive feedback which will be helpful.
3. Minimize coffee and alcohol consumption. Neither will really reduce stress or increase productivity.

MORE STRESS REDUCTION TIPS COMING NEXT WEEK.

OPPORTUNITIES

ARTISTS NEEDED FOR PAID ART ACTIVITIES IN BOSTON'S PARKS. - Mass Art is being considered as the coordinator of arts and culture activities in Boston's parks this summer. Artists would be needed to undertake all types of paid art activities in Boston's parks. Faculty, students, and staff interested in participating in this program should contact Steve Farrell, Director of Alumni Affairs and Development ; or Ted Landsmark, Assistant to the President for Affirmative Action and Special Projects; to discuss the development of proposals for this summer work.

MUSCULAR MEN , CALL X355 - The Open Door Theatre of Jamaica Plain is looking for large, muscular-to-beefy men for their production of The Physicists at their Outdoor Bowl Theatre in July. A lot of theatrical experience is not necessary. The roles are small, but this is an excellent opportunity to get involved in a play and have fun doing it. Interested men must be able to rehearse in June and July and perform in July and August. Marcia Morrison directs. Contact her at x355. if interested.

NEWSLETTER DESIGN UPDATE - The deadline for entries in the Newsletter Design Competition has been extended to May 15.. Using the present 8½ x 11 format, redesign the front page only. Cash prize for the winner.

SECURITY., There has been a lot of discussion and concern expressed by students and others about the need to have full-time, permanent employees as members of our Security Staff. With this in mind, President O'Neil has had a series of meetings with key members of the State Legislature to assist us with funding these 7 full-time positions.

Students have asked if there was anything they could do to help. One way that you can help is to write a letter to either Representative Richard Voke (Chair, House Committee on Ways and Means) or Senator Patricia McGovern (Chair, Senate Ways and Means Committee) and express your support for the President's request. Both members can be reached by writing to: State House, Boston, MA 02133.
